James DePelisi, President and Founder of LDV Capital Management, stated: "We are delighted to be holding our fourth dinner of this year's Spring Break for Wall Street Dinner Series. The March 30th dinner will be especially worthwhile, as it will shed significant insight towards the healthcare and biotechnology industries. Needless to say, healthcare and biotechnology are sectors that touch the lives of everyone."

James DePelisi continued to say: "We are also proud to have as our Keynote Speaker, Stephen Dresnick, M.D. and CEO, of Dresnick Healthcare Advisors (www.dresnickhealthcare.com). Stephen Dresnick, M.D. is a well known medical entrepreneur and acclaimed physician in Florida. Needing no introduction to the local South Florida Medical community, Dr. Dresnick will exchange views regarding, among other things, the current overall state of healthcare, and how the industry is affecting the American economy. State and Federal issues will also be discussed."

Mr. DePelisi went on to say: "We are doubly proud to have both Adventrx Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (AMEX:ANX) and InfuSystem Holdings, Inc. (AMEX:INFU) as the main presenters for the evening. They will conduct corporate presentations about their respective publicly traded companies. ADVENTRX (<http://www.ADVENTRX.com>) has three late-stage product candidates: Exelbine™ (vinorelbine injectable emulsion) which has an FDA PDUFA date for marketing approval of September 1st; ANX-514, a detergent-free docetaxel for lung, prostate and breast cancer; and ANX-188, a novel therapy for sickle cell disease. InfuSystem Holdings, Inc. (<http://www.infusystem.com>) is the leading North American provider of infusion pumps and related services to hospitals, oncology practices and other alternate site healthcare providers. Headquartered in Madison Heights, Michigan, the company delivers local, field-based customer support, and also operates Centers of Excellence in Michigan, Kansas, California, and Ontario, Canada."
