Real People, Real Success. Investing without Investor's Business Daily is like trying to live without water. James DePelisi, Radio Host Investors Business Hour.

IBD gives you the proper tools to make intelligent and informed decisions about the general market or a particular stock issue, and their fundamental and technical information is unparalleled. I have taught the principles of the paper to several hundred of my college students over the past four years, and they have had fantastic results. They do not invest without IBD, and neither do I...

There has never been anything like this paper before, there is nothing else like it now, and there will never, ever be another periodical like Investor's Business Daily ever again. Take advantage of it.
